Terms and Conditions

Access

The licensee will have access to the Innovation Hub from 08:00 to 18:00, Monday to Friday. Access outside these hours may be possible if the site is open and with the written agreement of the Facilities Manager. The site is closed on Bank Holidays, Christmas Eve, and from Christmas until the day after New Year's Day.

The licensor will provide the licensee with two sets of keys, which must be returned upon termination of the license. Any additional or replacement keys will be at the licensee's expense.

The licensee must grant the licensor, or any authorized representative, access to the room upon request at any time for any reason.

The licensor will provide a full health, safety, and security briefing during the licensee's induction. The licensee must conduct their own risk assessment for safe working and submit it to the licensor for verification. All safety guidance provided by the licensor must be followed.

The licensee must keep their room tidy and uncluttered at all times to prevent fire risks. They must respond to fire alarms by evacuating and follow the instructions of site safety staff at all times. The licensee is responsible for maintaining the interior of the room, including fixtures and fittings, in good working order. Any damages must be repaired, and if necessary, the room must be redecorated, or damaged/broken items replaced with similar ones of equal value. No structural alterations may be made to the room.

The licensee must take out their own contents insurance and remain responsible for their possessions at all times. The licensor will not be liable for any loss or damage to the licensee's property. The stated room capacity must not be exceeded, and the licensee may not sublet or share occupation with another organization.

No pets are allowed on-site.

Cooking is not permitted in the room. Shared kitchenette facilities with light preparation equipment are available for licensees to use.

Use of the Venue areas

Licensees may use the public areas of the building, subject to availability, but must always respect the business environment and be considerate of other users.

Access to the Venue Client refreshment areas is not permitted unless pre-agreed, for which a charge will apply. The designated refreshment area for licensees is within the leisure area.

Licensees may book a meeting room, restaurant table, or accommodation at reduced rates, subject to availability, through the Roffey Park Services sales team.

This license may be terminated by the licensor at any time with no reason required, provided at least 30 days' notice is given. The licensee may also terminate the license with a minimum of 30 days' notice.

Payment terms

The licensee shall pay one month's rent in advance as a deposit. Rent will be charged one month in advance on the first of each calendar month and for all subsequent months of occupancy.

There is no reduction in rent for Bank Holidays. December will be charged at 75% of the standard rent.

The deposit must be paid in advance, and the licensee must set up a direct debit or bank transfer to ensure rent is paid promptly on the first of each month.

All rent amounts quoted are exclusive of VAT, which will be charged at the applicable rate at the time.
